Profile

I'm a Full Stack Developer (Fresher) with a strong focus on Frontend, creating sleek, responsive interfaces using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Tailwind CSS, and React for smooth user experiences. On the backend, I work with MySQL, Firebase, and Node.js, while also applying C, C++, and Python for reliable data handling and scalable functionality. My achievements include building dynamic service apps and hackathon projects where design and usability were key, supported by robust backend integration. Driven by creativity and problem-solving, I transform complex ideas into intuitive, visually appealing solutions.
